Family marathon

In order to participate in Family marathon, with appropriate document to confirm it, participants can be: father, mother, children, stepchildren, orphans with their guardians, stepparents, adopting parents, a person bound by law to take care of other person or a common law partner.

A family competition of teams comprising three runners. Each family member runs one track (42km, 21km or 5km).

Any combination of family members is allowed (e.g. 3M, 3W, 1M+2W, 1W+2M...).

Each family member runs for position in the individual race on the track he/she is running.

When registering for the FAMILY MARATHON, family members must present an identification document with a photo.

The final family ranking will be determined by summing-up the results of all three runners.

The top three families will be awarded special and valuable Organizer's prizes.
