

Pickup of Start documentation

The start documentation will not be posted out like in previous years. All runners will receive the last important news two weeks prior to the commencement of the Zermatt Marathon via email. This documentation, together with a valid identification will allow you to ride free from Thursday to Saturday, 3rd-5th of July 2014 from Zermatt and/or Brig-Visp to St. Niklaus to pick up the starting numbers (race bibs).

The racing office in St. Niklaus

(School house opposite the Church):

- Thursday, 3rd July 2014, 4pm– 7pm
- Friday, 4th July 2014, 10am – 7pm
- Saturday, 5th July 2014, 6.45am – 8.15am

The race magazine, containing all the important race information will together with the starting documentation be ready to be downloaded here on our website.

Inspection of the course

For all registered runners new to our course, we have a special offer this year:

A free tour of the courses toughest stretches, at Sunnegga, Gant und Riffelalp with Didi Walter, multiple time Zermatt Marathon finisher.

Meet in running clothes,
ready to go:

(Don't forget your train ticket = bib number)

Friday 4th July, 2 pm, Zermatt train station, at the information stand, next to our party tent.

Duration will be about 2.5 hours in a slow comfortable jogging pace. It's about 7kms in total. Hilly sections will be bypassed, as you will need your energy for the following day.... ;-)

Registration for the Zermatt Ultra Marathon and the Half Marathon is closed!

Registration for the Zermatt Ultra Marathon and the Half Marathon is now closed. The limited places for this two running adventure have all been allocated.

As of now however, you can register to buy or sell start places for the Ultra Marathon and the Half Marathon on the online exchange service.

For the Marathon and the Marathon relay-race there are still free places available.
